At 12:00 p.m., Glynn County Police Criminal Investigators arrested two individuals responsible for recent pharmacy burglaries.

Kelly Darlene Breland, age 42, of Brunswick has been charged with:

Two counts of party to the crime of burglary for the Altama Pharmacy located at 5711 Altama Avenue reported on 2-16-10 and the 3-3-10 burglary reported at Rainbow Pharmacy located at 4319 New Jesup Highway; and

Fifteen counts of possession of schedule 2 narcotic with intent to distribute.

Arnold W. Myers, age 37 of Brunswick has been charged with:

Two counts of burglary for the Altama Pharmacy located at 5711 Altama Avenue reported on 2-16-10 and the 3-3-10 burglary reported at Rainbow Pharmacy located at 4319 New Jesup Highway; and

Criminal attempt to commit burglary for the attempted burglary reported on 2-23-10 at Altama Pharmacy; and

Fifteen counts of possession of schedule 2 narcotic with intent to distribute.

The arrests stem from excellent investigative work and surveillance of the suspects by the criminal investigative division. Both suspects were arrested without incident at the Travelodge located at 3040 Scarlet Street. A subsequent search warrant was executed on their motel room and pills were recovered with a street value of $20,000.

The investigation continues by Inv. Roxanne McKeon, 554-7813.
